Alison Utting (Chair), Elinor Williams

Apologies: Sue Chaloner, Ron Gunstone,

In attendance: Julia Thomas

- We now have a deposit card and the audited accounts are being dealt with.
- We intend to apply for a Tesco grant to purchase lighting
- We have over £4000 in the bank
- We had a very lengthy discussion regarding safeguarding. The policy is being updated and the full implications will be publicized at the AGM in November.
- Current production is going well and publicity posters etc. will be available in the next few days. There is a Charleston workshop on Saturday 18th October (bring and share lunch), followed by tips on 40s hair and make up . Spaces are limited but if you would like to attend please let Marg know.
- We are actively looking for somewhere to store costumes and props. We are considering buying a container or renting storage somewhere. We will ask for suggestions at the AGM.
- Future Events: January workshop – more details to follow. One Acts in the Spring.
- We have a few quotes for new lighting. We will get more details and then apply for a Tesco grant to purchase them.
- We are currently getting quotes to convert our videos of previous productions into downloadable digital copies.
- The AGM will be held on Friday 21 November 2025 at 7.30 p.m. in Pant Memorial Hall followed by a Social with refreshments. Not to be missed!

If you have an issue or query you would like to refer to the next Committee meeting, please let Marg know on margkyn@hotmail.com. Next Committee meeting Monday 17 November 2025.
